Kiazer's Quest

Om!

Kiazer continues on his ongoing quest, evolving by traversing a treacherous path of destiny. In this continuing journey, Kiazer strips away the veils of illusion that obscure hidden knowledge about beings engaged in such false pretense as setting themselves up to be perceived by humanity as gods and devils.

Journey along with Kiazer as he reveals secrets guarded by the gatekeepers of all religions and governments who, for centuries and at any cost, have sequestered the true knowledge of life and who we are. What will happen when these dominionists lose their grip?

Travel within the country of Eria (known today as North America) as Kiazer witnesses the reawakening of many more people to this forbidden knowledge. How will our perceptions of reality change as people realize there is more to life than what we've been told? Join Kiazer in his quest by challenging not only religious figures but also yourself. Ask the crucial and critical questions about life. Decline to be deceived.

The Gathering

As Kiazer travels around the continent of North America he stops at a community around the Pyramid Mountain located within the continental divide of the Rocky Mountains. He gathers with a group of people around a campfire on this early evening of early spring of 2004, once again, Kiazer hopes to bring forth The Knowledge for all to remember. A Knowledge that is there for all to reawaken, which is within us all that will help everyone to reawaken to who they truly are.

This is the knowledge that some beings, which came from the stars, decided to keep the inhabitants of this world from learning of who we are. Over the past thirty-six years Kiazer had been delving ever deeper into the forbidden Knowledge of the essence of our existence, as you experience the Kiazerian journal. Explore the next level of our evolution as we all move forward. Those above and those below in the unending cycles that transcend space and time.

During Kiazer's journey's around the world for the past twenty years he's been revisiting ancient and past civilizations, Kiazer illuminates the falsehoods, lies, and deceptions of the belief systems of Terra (Earth). As he discovers a past life from over 6,000 years ago, upon the continent of Tampaurban, on the eastern side of Eria and separated by the Atlantic Ocean, in present day geography, the continent of Africa /

Middle East and The Far East.

Zoroastrian Dualism

Kiazer learns he is responsible for the creation of a 6,000-year-old belief system during a previous incarnation. From 4,000 through 1,000 BCE, Kiazer was known from 4,000 years BCE to 3,000 years BCE as Zartosht, and then from 3,000 years BCE through 2,000 years BCE known as Zarathustra, then from 2,000 BCE through 1,000 BCE known as Zoroaster. Zoroaster who created the original Zoroastrian Belief system that taught about the unity of good and evil existing within us all. During the year of two thousand BCE, which is when the original concept of his belief system had been changed to the way it is taught in the world of today with all of its conceptualism of the duality of good and evil. A belief system that encourages dualism by separating entities into two opposing components: good and evil. Emphasizing, in part, that evil is composed of negative beings that should be feared!

During this time period, it becomes obvious how dualistic belief systems can be used to wield power and control over diverse cultures by claiming that neighboring cultures gods are demons and therefore evil. As such a narrow belief system spreads and is imposed upon various cultures it encounters, the potential for divisiveness and destruction also seem apparent. This is only one of many belief systems, which has gotten way out of hand. It is merely one of many belief systems, which need to end. We need to bring back a more natural/spiritual way of living.

Incidentally, it's noteworthy that this belief system brought about a dispute within Zoroaster's family, which ended his life in 1,000 B.C.E. Nearly 1,000 years later, at the start of a New Age, the time period from 1,000 BCE – 500 CE. Kiazer becomes aware that several spiritual beings will be born and they will begin teaching spiritual ways of living. Given that the religions of this period became corrupted, in comparison to the older ways of believing, many people tried to lead humanity back toward a spiritual reawakening. However, many other religious figures preferred to retain control over people through fear-based belief systems and managed to convince the people that religiosity versus spirituality is the only socially acceptable way to live. Despite the fact that religions have falsified stories throughout time, it is the authors hope that this series of books will enlighten by helping you understand what is truly going on in the world within contemporary society.

From the Being of Beings

For eons...
We lived amongst you...
As many Beings...
Knowing, what you have yet to learn.

Guardians of knowledge,
That mortal minds cannot yet dream of.
For we are the keepers,
Of that is yet to come to you.

From the beings of beings.
Now, comes the time to release our Knowledge to you...
So, you too may continue up the ladder,
Behind us, to the beyond the beyond.

Which is, rightfully yours, to take part in...
May the wings guide you,
On your journeys, to once,
Which we came from.
So, we too can continue on...
To the beyond the beyond.

Chapter 1

THE THOUGHT

As Kiazer is gathered around a campfire on this early cool evening of 2004, at the Pyramid Mountain there is a group of fifteen men and women of ages from young twenties to mid fifties. Five of these people had been traveling with Kiazer since 1993.

Kiazer mentions to the group, “five of you that have been traveling with me for a while now know about this ancient knowledge of our existence of who we are as reawakened beings, it is you will recall one aspect of thought. Well, I am going to mention the other aspect of thought. This other thought, will be, the thought that brought forth, all that there is, meaning, bringing all things into existence, including the one that many people go about calling, The One Being - GOD!

Jacobson is one of the ten people that are sitting around the campfire that are not part of the five that have been traveling with Kiazer. Jacobson is an older man in his late forties with long jet-black hair and Caucasian. He asks, “So, what you are saying is...”

Kiazer interrupts Jacobson, “Wait a minute Jacobson. I have to explain it from the beginning, or you and others will not be able to completely understand what I have to convey. There are key things that need to be made clear to everyone. Save this and all questions for the end, if you do not find the answers, by the time I am through.”

Kiazer makes himself comfortable on the ground, as the evening grows darker and the campfire begins to light up the area around them. As Kiazer begins he glances around the group, “This thought, brought all things into being. It includes positive along with negative beings of all forms that are seen and unseen, matter and antimatter into physical form in one form or another.

As I mentioned to other people that I encounter through this journey of teaching to people of the knowledge that has been suppressed, thought, can be used to control and to destroy, it can be used as well to create at the same time. While one being's thought, creates life, so can another being's thought be used as a mechanism to control another being's life.

How did this come about? Well, some say in the beginning. Well, there is never a beginning. It just appears to be a beginning from that particular perspective, a viewpoint of one's own life on where they were brought into existence. This is a never-ending circle of life. As all beings come to realize, at one point or another, all beings that exist are realizing their own thoughts, are created in front of them, as well as the so called first being's thought which is also becoming created. During this time, this cycle of life we are going from, its destruction than back into being created again. Who is to say, there is only one being that can create upon the mere thought of creating and/or destroying. These are everyone's accumulated thoughts, the thoughts that create ones own existence. The thought that creates another ones thought into existence. Which also, brings forth the creation of the beings, to go with the thoughts.

This instance brings forth the beginning moments of these beings, that will exist for the experience of that thought for this creation, that they all took part in, bringing these thoughts, and all those beings of positive, negative into reality, of what may seem to be past, present and of the future. All these beings react to other beings thoughts, and they help create the world(s) around them. Based on all the thoughts that are being put out around them, some of these beings will come to see these beings as of good (positive) and evil (negative). In addition, those so-called beings of good and evil are in a way, stuck in playing this so called creation, based upon, the other beings that brought this thought into creation.

So, you have the beings that created the thought in the past, which, is now, being experienced, by the very being that created the thought without knowing, it was their own thoughts of the past. Which is now, becoming reality for them to experience their own creation that is their own worst nightmare. Because they are not aware they are their own thoughts that they are experiencing, in the present. All of the, good (creation) and evil (destruction) that these beings feared and thought of in the past, is now manifesting as their experiences. These beings had gone about creating a god, thought, and a being for all the beginning (creations) of good. They also created a being of evil, end of all things, (destruction). Some of these beings are the people of today. Twenty-five percent are realizing that they created all of these experiences they are going through, while the other seventy-five percent of the civilization are still going about thinking, that some other beings, if it be a god or some devil which created these experiences, that we are going through.

These seventy-five percent of the Earth's inhabitants are now creating a new thought of the end, of what may play out, with these two beings of light and dark. They fear what these two beings represent and fear these beings and experiences as if they were good or bad. Essentially, this is fear manifest, when people fear the experiences of what they witnessed of the past.

These people have more to fear than those two beings that were created by their own thoughts. They have the fear of the thoughts of all beings that exist.

Thoughts of positive and negative energies have always been in existence from age to age. It is the more current age that all beings fear because, they created these so called beings to represent the thoughts of positive and negative aspects of all their thought. Therefore, you have many beings that are representing good (positive) and evil (negative). All this was brought on around 7,000 BCE mainly because the people did not want to be held accountable for their thoughts and actions.

Therefore, we are living in a time, that we all must understand the thoughts that brought these so called beings into existence. Such thoughts represent the duality within all of us.

One thought ushers in the creation of life, (which you're the creator of life, the one that thought it). Which all people will witness, as being created by some being(s) therefore, the ones that end up witnessing these events are saying, "that a being of wonderful powers, brought these events, creations, into manifestation, or foretold of what will come to be." This is called, a self-fulfilling prophecy. Without realizing it was ourselves in the past that thought of the events of the future, that all of us would come to experience in time. All of us, created all of these gods and devils in the past. Most of you will come to fear your own creations as we move nearer the future. Which of these events are to come about?

We all take part in, creating all the faces of good and evil, light and dark, gods and devils, which are no more than positive and negative aspects of one's own self.

Chapter 2

THE CREATIONS

Hours passed by as everyone still sits around the campfire intrigued with all that Kiazer is sharing with him or her. “In my digging ever deeper into the mythologies, I came across a very interesting story. I am, going to share that story with you. However, this story is from a larger story, it is the fourth part of a fifteen-part book. I have the entire fifteen volumes of this story. It is a story dating from 4,000-1,000 BCE. During this time it was the age of Aries, a time of peace, harmony and tranquility.

At this time, the age that we are leaving was known as the age of Pisces. One can assume this might be where you, the civilization of now, came up with the theory of the so-called beings, of good and evil. You go about assuming that these beings will play out their roles on the Earth, of the past, present, and of the future. These Beings of dark, (evil, negativity) of now, were not on the Earth until 33,000 BCE, years ago during the beginning of this fifth cycle and the start of the age of dark and light, which is still a part of the cycle that we are experiencing. This age of dark and light is the last part of the fifth cycle of the Earth.

This fifth cycle ended at the year 2000, the time the Earth's sixth cycle began.

Yes, there were other cycles and ages than the one that all of you are so used to. The past ages also had their so-called good and evil as you have learned in Book 1.

Nevertheless, the beings of good and evil of those many ages past are about to take a different turn -- a different role, so to say, for all beings of this past current cycle and age, that you are now leaving. Then you will enter into your new age of total light and total consciousness reawakening - a new way of living and understanding.

During the year of 1000 BCE this being named Ahriman was depicted as a being of evil that will come to the Earth every 1,000 years to battle the Being of Light.

During the beginning of the year 2003 I started delving into the Zoroastrian belief system. I came to learn that I was Zoroaster in my second life incarnation here on Earth. This discovery gave me another piece of the puzzle, to the bigger picture of my life, along with my personal beliefs and how the religions came about being the way they are today.

Book 4 of The Denkard of The Zoroastrian religion, which was written around 4000 BCE, or 6,000 years ago, from this year of 2004 offers insight into why I express this sentiment, and how the beliefs had been changed in 1000 BCE.
